Sharon Houston

Sharon Houston -

I really can't begin to tell you how much your friendship throughout the past years has meant to me. We've really been through a great deal together. All those cheer-leading try-outs, the games, the beach trips, the "pro-shop" days, all all those long talks! you have been a great influence on me even if you didn't realize it!

Please don't forget me next year - I'll miss you all so much. If it's all right, I'm coming to see you sometime.

I know sometimes it seems as though you're living in HELL - but just remember GOD LOVES YOU - and I know you'll make it! Have a wonderful summer - and good luck!

Love,
Mary Lynn

Sharon,
our four years at J.K. have almost come to a close. We have been the best of friends for a long time. Next year will be different.
Our friendship will still be shared always. We have really had some great times together. Cheering us up sometimes we were great times! He gave it up shopping and especially in J.K. He had shared problems with each other. Some were happy and some were sad. Remember all our problems of "love-lives" I'll never forget them! It seems as if our class is the closest it has been since we were at J.K.
It seems funny to know we will all be separated in a few weeks. Next year keep many memories at Louisburg and we will have to visit each other on weekends. Keep your wonderful smile and great personality! Good luck always to a deserving girl!
Love always,
Danga,
Sr. 77

P.S. We will have to go to the beach
a lot this summer!

Sharon,

I'm glad I got to know you better this year.
I have always thought you were one of the best looking girls
and now I know you are one of the nicest.

It was a lot of fun
talking to you in Government and English. (Even though you are kind of stupid) Enjoyed watching you cheer this year also.

Wish you luck next year at Louisburg. I hope you will come see me next year whenever you don't have anything to do. I just wish you luck and hope
you find whatever you are looking for out of life.

Dedicated To And To The Ideals Of MR. WAYLAND T. DAVIS

Teacher, scoutmaster, husband, father, and friend are a few of the traits of Mr. Wayland Davis. But these by no means cover them all.

Mr. Davis has taught at James Kenan High School for ten years. He has served the school well as agriculture teacher and sponsor of the Future Farmers of America. He is also active in his church and as scoutmaster of a local boy scout troop. It is he whom everyone calls upon when something is needed - whether it be for stage decorations, temporary implementation for a leaky roof, or just ordinary advice.

It is for this and more that we, the WAKEMA staff, do gratefully dedicate our 1971 yearbook to Mr. Wayland T. Davis and all that he stands for.

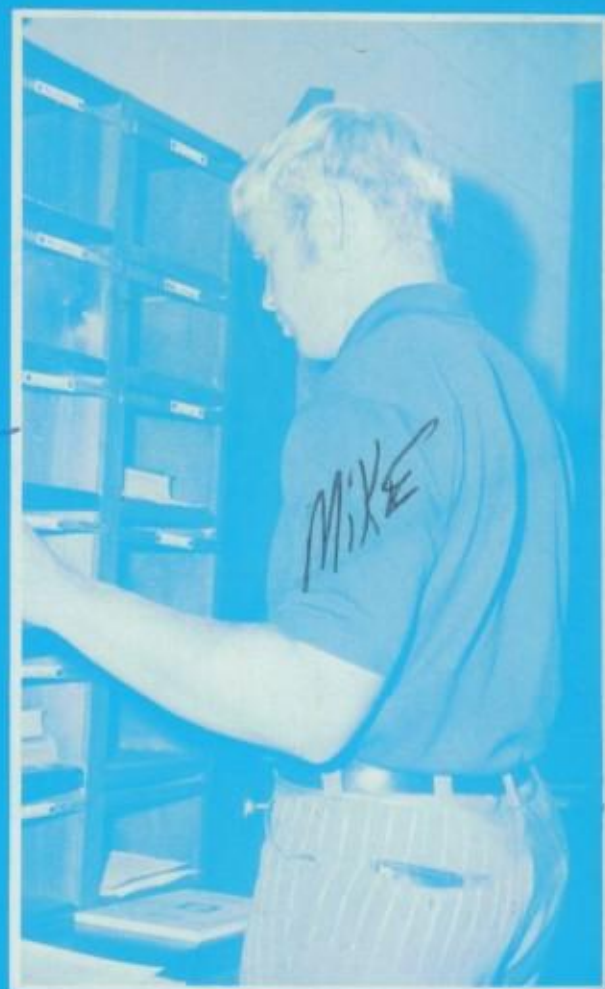

Sharon,

You're a real sweet girl that I'm sure to miss next year. Keep smiling forever, and you can't go wrong! You were a great cheerleader for our great "Tigers" & will be remembered for it (among other things!).

We really should have met at lunch at the Little-Mint before school's out! Huh? Remember the day we did go (during exams)? I think that's when I realized what a sweet and fun-loving girl you are. The best of luck to a beautiful friend!

Love ya!
Ginger.

(Don't forget me!)

Sharon,

I can't begin to tell you what your friendship has meant to me. Sharing my brother with you - was great. Sometimes it seemed as though you were my sister. It seemed like we always had our problems and they were big and small ones. Remember all those long talks we use to have when you came over to the house those beach trips. When "brother Billy" wished "sister Beth" would disappear. Those shopping trips we use to go on with 38¢ of gas. And that car of Greens. It really used the gas.

It seems now we are not as close as we were then. But I still consider you as one of my best friends.

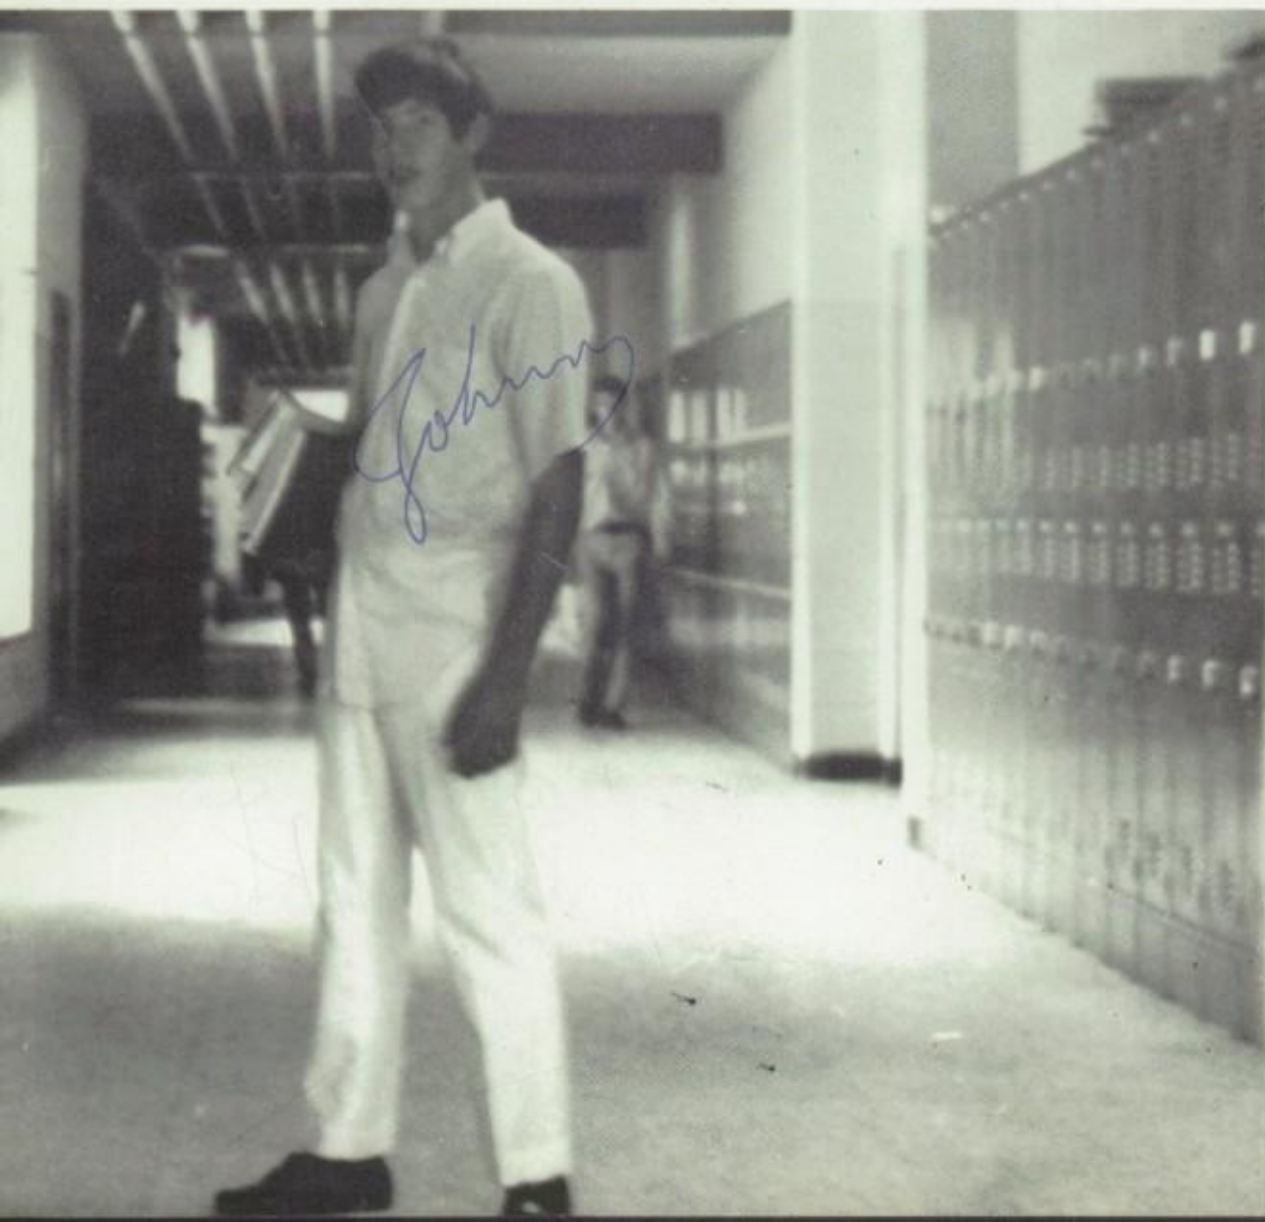

Just how the Good Life at James Kenan High School is best described is a difficult thing to answer. There are traditional values that will always remain within the school

“... torn between the old and new ...”

On the local scene, students are torn between the old and new social values - of these, particularly the racial, sexual, and political values. As a result of a search for identity in these social stresses, the Good Life makes us aware.

Will Sharon,

Twelve short years have gone by us and still I admire the lovely blonde who shared my name, my secrets, my success, my failures, my happiness and my disappointments.

I think the thing that brought us closest to each other was cheering. You are a fantastic cheerleader and I really enjoyed being on your end. We saw so many things that no one else saw... physical and mental.

All the double dates we had. They were always more fun with you and Billy. Things surely change don't they? We are the living proof, huh? But I'm not sorry for the memories and experiences and I know you aren't either.

You are one of the finest, nicest persons I've ever known. We've always managed to patch up any disagreements. Come see me next year, I mean it! God bless you always!

... trying to understand ..."

Sharon,
It's hard to tell how a friendship like ours grew so fast. I hardly knew you for three years and then you became one of my closest friends. Think of all the fun we have had together, the laughs, serious talks, crazy things we've done, Incoopy's, Pizza Inn, Little Mint, the beach, Gary's car, my house, your house, the arguments, laying out in the sun, going to Kinston, shoplifting, worrying, Glen's cottage, Easter weekend, Senior Prom, skipping school, and there is still this summer and next year at college to look forward to. Boy, did I need a friend like you, you've helped me change so much. But without you I don't think I could have made it. I won't go into that because you know what I mean.

"You are the sweetest, most understanding 'buddy' and I know that I can always come to you about anything and you will always have the answer and brighten my day up. I only hope that I have been as understanding as you have been to me. I feel like we will remain friends forever because there is just something about our friendship that is too strong to separate us. We have a lot in common, even if I don't like broccoli and asparagus, and you don't like mustard sandwiches. In the end, we grow older as the Good Life passes. We may not have changed the world, and we may not have understood, but at least we were made aware. I will never forget the nights at the Pizza Inn when we walked without paying and stealing the pen and candy at Bette's. The night we had to get rid of those queer guys, working at the gas station, I could write a book we've done so many things. Let's keep it up all summer and next year too, ain't we crazy and hazy? Even if people think we're out of our tree, we've got to live for the present and enjoy every GD minute of it!"

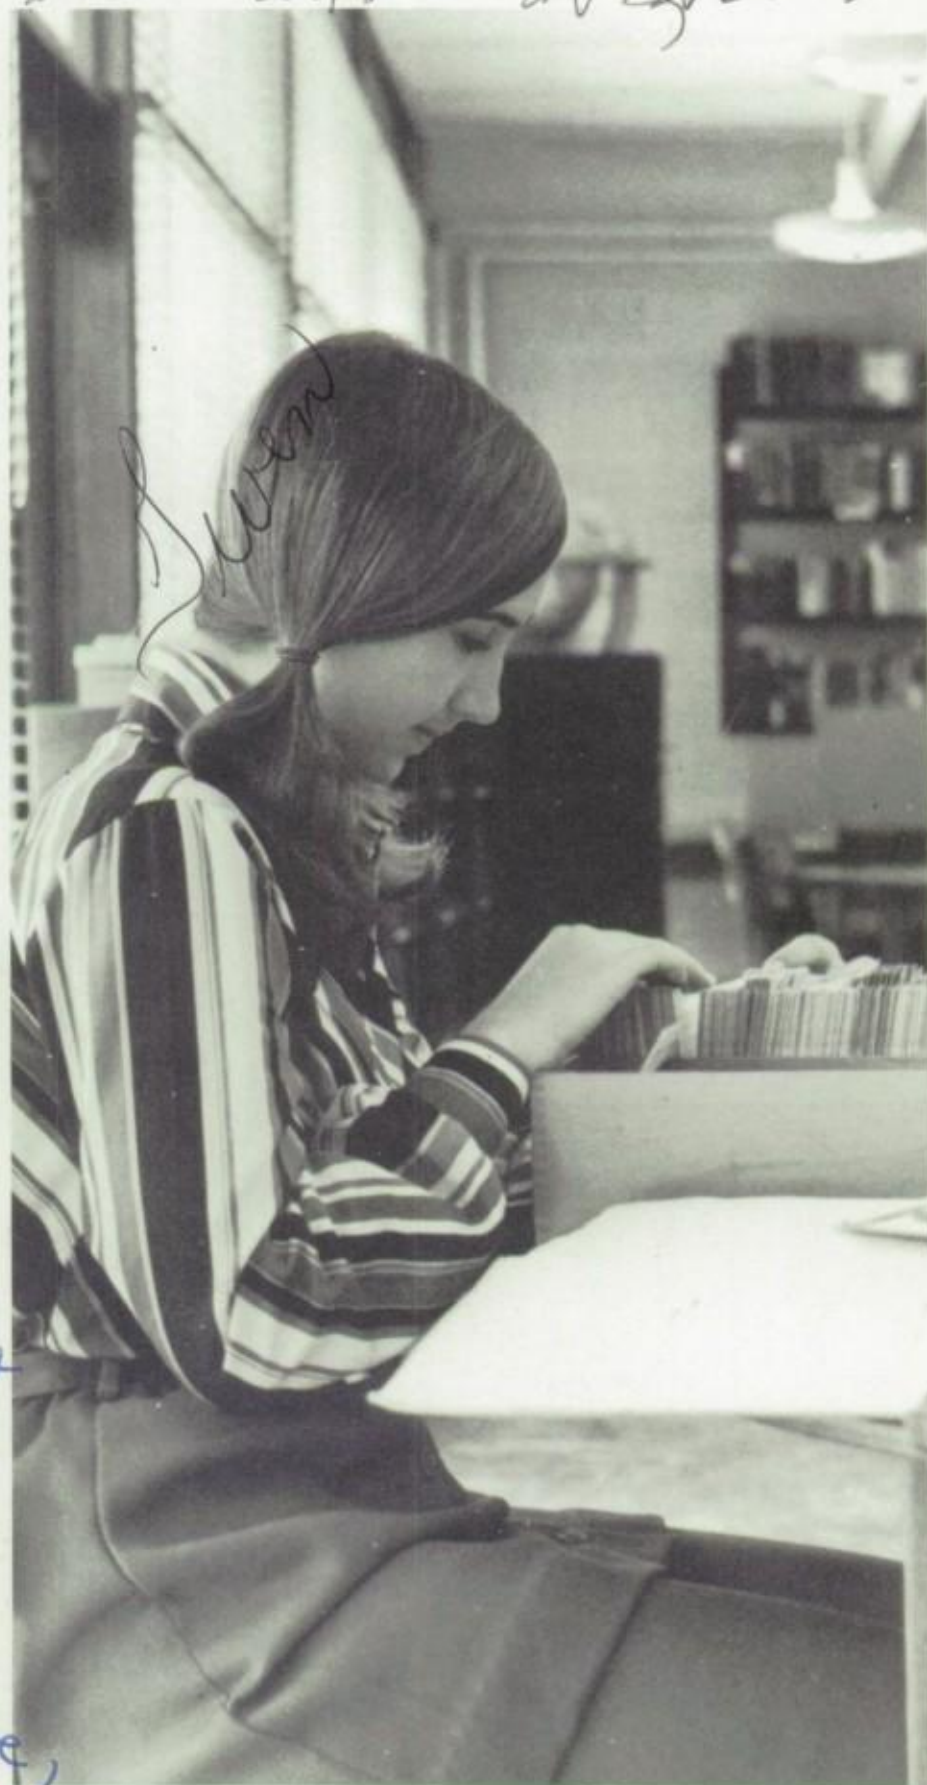

Sharon
I must say our friendship is <sup>close</sup> the strongest I could ever pull through. Our bad days were terrible
but not the sweet one overpowered them

With our "in-tri-ful" men that we have had and still have we should live a better bright future ahead of us, but as it stands
now it will still be
the same old tired

Be Cool and Stay as Sweet and Sensible as you have been since first met
you.
In any way life
be as bright as my
feel as I love love

You're just the greatest friend I could have and I thank the lord for just letting me get to know you. There is one thing good about K'ville, I've got a great "buddy"
living there and her name
is Sharon Houston!!!

Luv always

Mr. Taylor . . .

This year was Mr. Taylor's first experience in serving as principal at James Kenan, but he was by no means a stranger. During the period that he was principal at the Warsaw Junior High School he was a successful football coach for the James Kenan Tigers. Now he is with us again, not as a coach, but as our principal. He came with a lot of enthusiasm to help the teachers and students work together to make James Kenan a school to be proud of.

Mr. Taylor graduated from Duke University in 1950 with an AB degree and graduated from East Carolina University in 1959 with a MA degree.

We, at James Kenan High School salute Mr. Taylor for his new ideas and willingness to listen to the students. James Kenan is lucky to have a fine addition to the faculty.

New Principal Introduces Changes in JK's System : Dictatorship

Mr. W. J. Taylor has instituted many changes at James Kenan this year. Among the changes are dress code policy, which now allows female students and teachers to wear slacks to school, and the formation of JK's first student council.

Mr. Mainor: Assistant Principal

This year Mr. George Mainor served as Assistant Principal at James Kenan. As Assistant Principal, Mr. Mainor has worked faithfully to bring about order and good conduct for a smoother running school. He was in charge of the school buses and he also helped the students in any way he could.

Mr. Mainor received his B. S. degree from Fayetteville State University and he has served as Assistant Principal for two years.

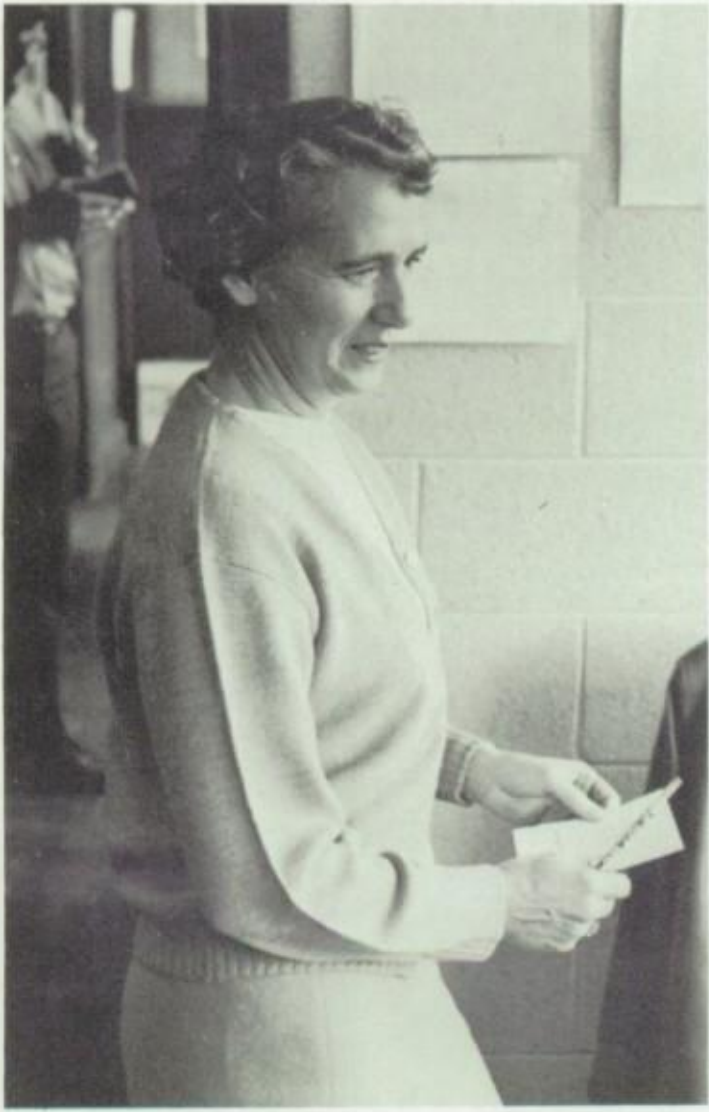

Mr. Mainor is to be commended for his interest in the betterment for the school and students.

During a Puritan Meeting in Mrs. Jones' English III class, many students get tickled to discover that they don't know their alphabet as well as they once thought.

English And French —

Mrs. Scott makes conjugating verbs seem simple to Ray Romanger.

Miss Abbott's French I class isn't as dull as one might think, right, Phadra Murrill?

Mrs. Maye's English IV-2 class sits attentively during the play MacBETH.

JK's Languages

Mrs. Brown assists Judy Miller in operating the tape recorder during a French II class.

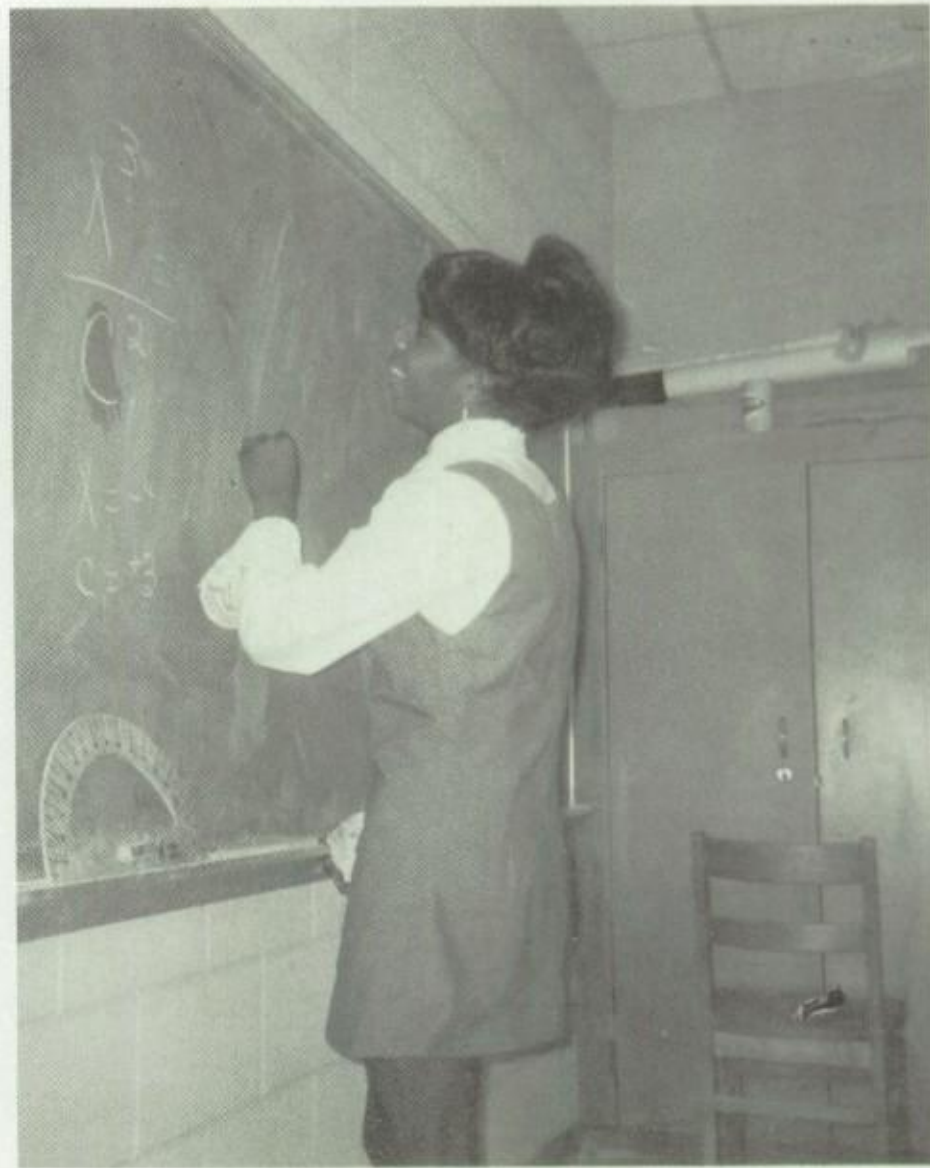

These "Puritans" are ready to enter for a church service in an English III skit.

Mrs. Pierce's Math 4 class seems to be paying attention ... what's wrong?

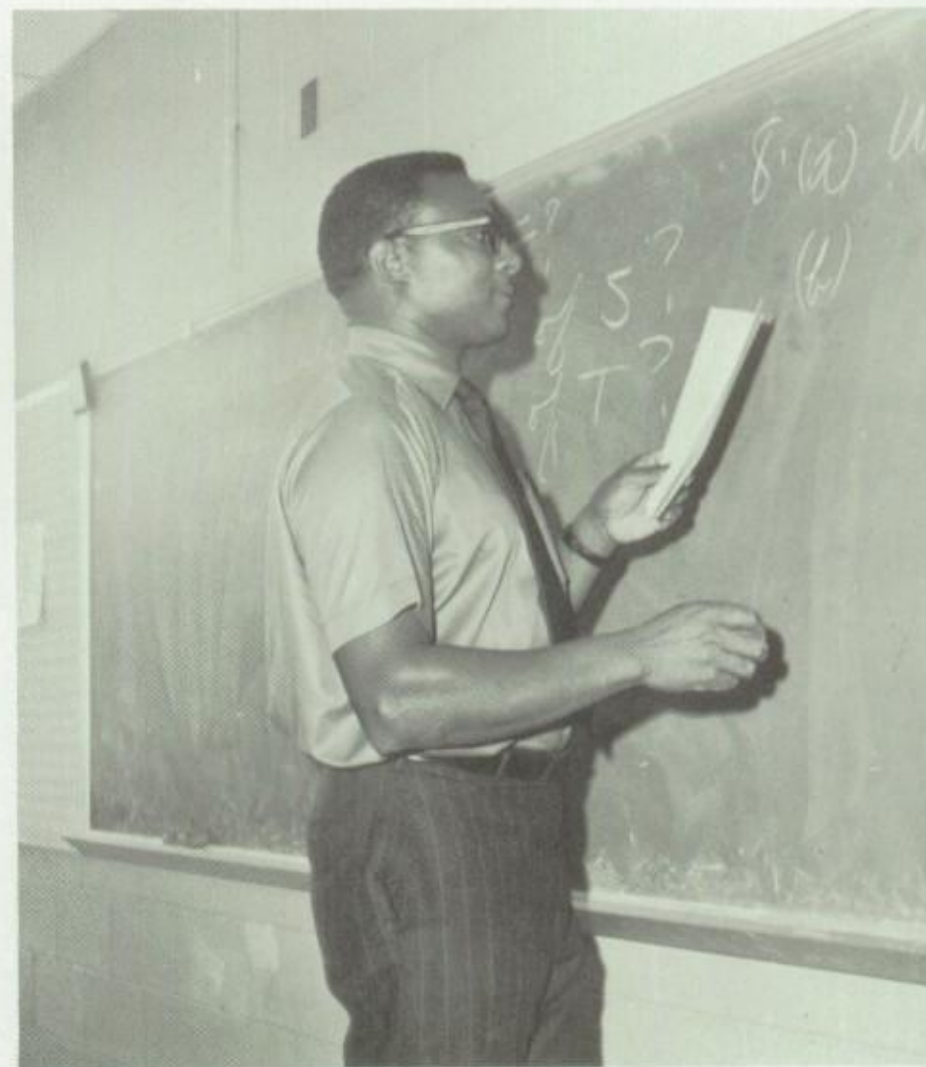

Vonnie Herring is finding algebra rather easy.

Math . . .

Mrs. Pierce tries to explain this geometric figure to Johnny Johnson.

Mr. Boney puts up a physics test on the board.

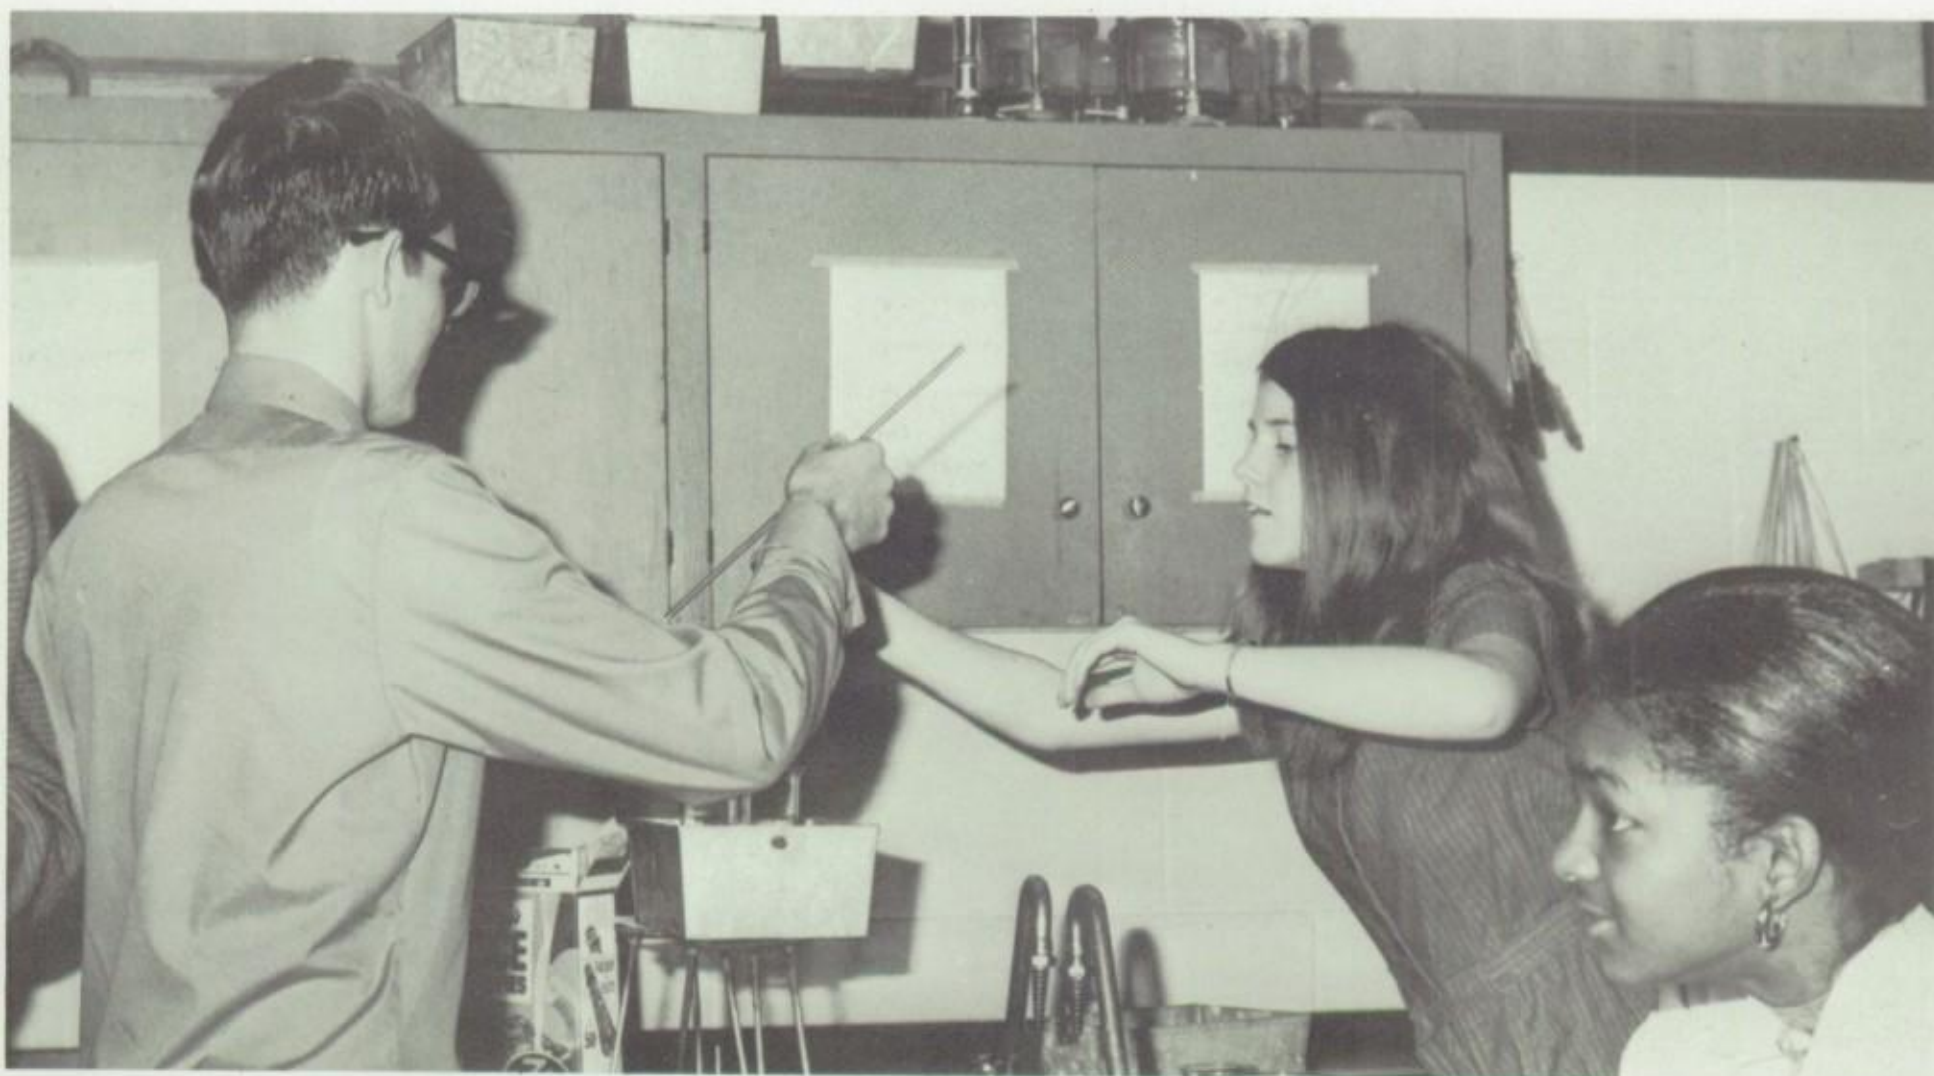

Odell, David, and Lynn have a hard time understanding about this new chemistry, but it seems as if Mrs. Lanier has even a harder time trying to explain.

Nancy Murphy and Barbara Blanchard find cutting up an earthworm sickening.

And Science

Lena Dobson wonders what Barbara Scott and Miles Smith are up to . . .

Mr. McKoy checks his roll in one of his history classes.

Mr. Helton tries to explain to Lynn Booker why Rome isn't the capital of the United States.

The "Past" Catches

Democracy-In-Action ... it looks as if some like and some don't.

Mrs. Jones' World History classes aren't always like this. Sometimes they are worse.

Mrs. Carr, is not only an outstanding History teacher, but also a great help in the office.

Up, At J.K.

Even history classes at times have their good side.

Karen Powell gives a speech in her government class.

Shorthand seems to puzzle Mrs. Faye Williams too!

Mrs. Woodard gets caught by the camera while teaching her way.

Mrs. Carlton can't seem to get her records straight.

J.K.'s Business

J. K.'s Sophomores find that typing isn't as hard as they thought.

James Earl Whitman checks over his numbers in book-keeping.

Vionne Whifield gives a report in Miss Woodard's office practice class.

Elva Quinn can't understand why Mrs. Carlton thinks bookkeeping is easy!

World!

Kathy Whitman, Denise Price, and Alice Dail attempt to do a shorthand problem.

A Choice In

Jack Grady and Ronnie Deluca find Bricklaying worthwhile under the supervision of Mr. Ezzell.

Mr. Foster keeps busy in one of his shop classes.

The Efforts Of The Good Life The Efforts Of The Good

Gary Scott is the dedicated editor of this year's WAKEMA. Karen Powell serves as the Business Manager. Together, they have spent many hours in making this year's WAKEMA a shining replica of the good life spent at James Kenan.

Mrs. Betty Lanier helps turn the hard work of publishing an annual into the sheer fun of creating a book of good life.

Wakema

Selling ads, raising money, and creating rough drafts (all before the deadlines) demand a great deal of hard work and time from everyone on the WAKEMA staff.

Finishing the final drafts, receiving the finished books, and reminiscing the good life make the trials and tribulations vanish and smiles appear on faces.

These are some of the hard-working students that produced this year's WAKEMA.

The Music Club is composed of all the piano students at James Kenan under the guidance of Mrs. Nell Middleton. Lynn Dail is the Southeastern District Junior Secretary; Jo Carol Jones, the Southeastern District President; Jenny Carlton is the newest addition to the Club; and, Gail Dunn is the Secretary of the Warsaw Junior Club.

Music Club

A simple tune,

The Good Times Are Brightened . .

The National Honor Society and the BETA Club merged this year to form one honor club, the National Honor Society. This is one of the largest clubs at James Kenan this year even though the standards have been raised requiring each member to have a 90 or above average. In the spring new members of Juniors will be inducted into the National Honor Society to make it an even larger club.

Gail Costin, Secretary; Jerry Reynolds, Treasurer; Addie Pearl Hall, Vice-President; and Mike Shank, President, lead the National Honor Society through many outstanding projects.

Season Review

James Kenan got off to a good start in a new season by defeating Roseboro-Salemburg by a score of 20-0. Don Best and Mike Monk accounted for most of the Tigers' points.

The second game against Southern Wayne was played in a steady downpour. After many Tiger mistakes in the mud, the outcome was a 27-8 defeat for the Tigers. Don Best scored the lone Tiger touchdown with a Taylor to Pridgen pass accounting for the two point conversion.

The Tigers tried to bounce back after the previous week's loss and defeat highly praised Jones Senior. A last minute score by the Trojans defeated the Tigers. Tiger scores came from Danny Herring and Hunt Taylor.

Herring braces for the unknown
Who wants the bag, skinny leg & ALL me

The Tigers led the Bulldogs of Wallace-Rose Hill in everything but points. J. K. took an early lead over the Bulldogs with a 65-yard run by Don Best, but as was usual the Tigers were beaten by their mistakes - not by the team they played. Danny Herring rounded out the scoring for the Tigers with a 35-yard run after a blocked punt. The Tigers were downed 20-14.

Best, No. 21, Tiptoes in for a look

J. K. got back into the winning column this week with a 22-0 victory over 3-A Hope Mills. The Tigers scored all 22 points in the first half with Taylor, Best, and Prigden each scoring a touchdown. David Sheffield added the extra points.

This week against Swansboro James Kenan was shutout for the first and what was to be the only time this year. The Pirates won handily by a score of 28-0. The Pirates who led by a score of 12-0 at the half went on to extend the lead for what appeared to be an easy battle but what was really a hard-fought struggle against the never give up Tigers.

Best holds back as Mathis strolls over to see tackle made by Monk.

After a stunning loss the week before, J. K. moved to Richlands to try and continue their mastery over the Wildcats who had never beaten the Tigers in football before. James Kenan controlled the game in the first half and had a 14-0 lead at intermission. The Wildcats came back in the second half to score three touchdowns, the last with 35 seconds remaining, to defeat the Tigers in a very tough game for both teams.

Next on the list came East Duplin. David Sheffield and David (Spike) Edwards each scored a touchdown in the first half for the Tigers. The score at half-time was tied at 12-12. The second half brought little scoring, the only score went to the Panthers of East Duplin who scored in the last minute to defeat the Tigers 18-12.

The hard-luck Tigers - as we were called by the papers - lost again this week to South Lenior by a score of 35-14. The scores for James Kenan came from David Sheffield and Spike Edwards.

The Tigers tried to close out the season with a victory which the Seniors wanted more than anyone. James Kenan went to the lockers at half-time with a 29-12 lead. After this the Red Devils came alive and won the game 34-29.

SENATE YOUTH PROGRAM DELEGATES ANNOUNCED

Two North Carolinians will be among 102 national student leaders spending January 30-February 6 in Washington, D. C. to learn about United States Government while watching it in action. Jeff Kristeller of Durham and Mike Shank of Warsaw were selected from among 20 finalists to be North Carolina's delegates to the ninth annual Randolph Hearst Foundation United States Senate Youth Program. U. S. Senators Everett Jordan and Sam Ervin made the announcement on December 15, several weeks after the candidates had been interviewed.

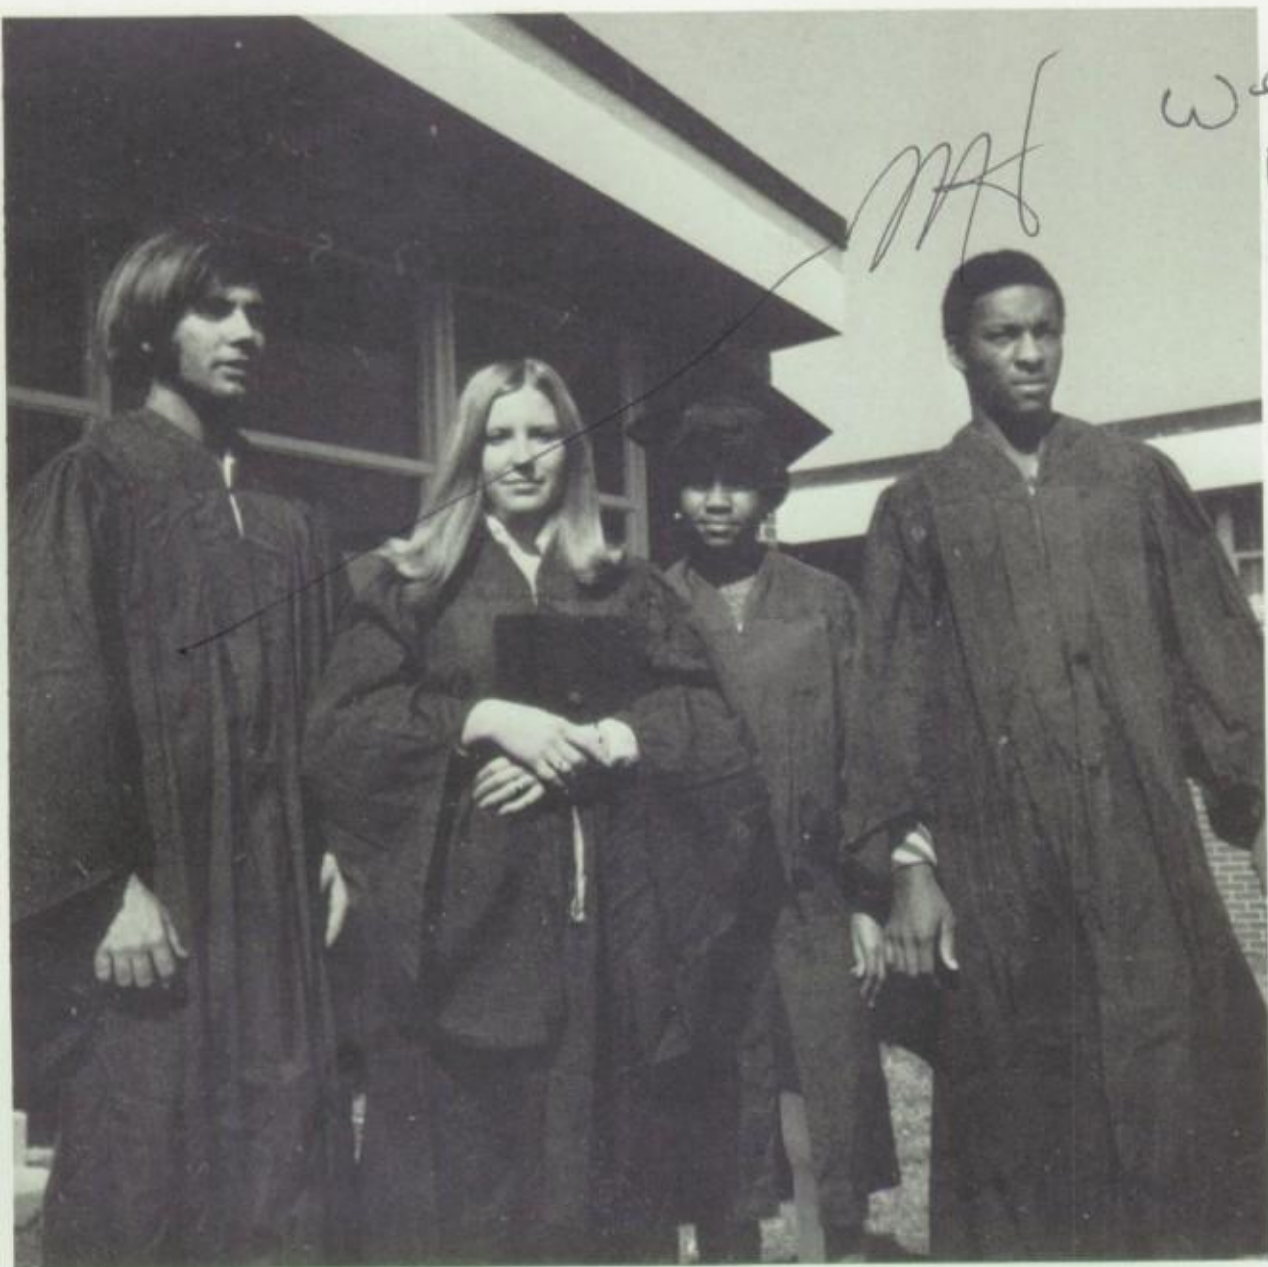

To be eligible for the honor, which carries a $1,000 scholarship, each student had to be an elected officer in one of several designated positions. Candidates also were required to have completed successfully a course in United States history. Before they became eligible for the State-level interviews, they were tested locally with objective examinations supplied by the Hearst Foundation.

In the past, the President and Vice-President have met and talked with the young Washington visitors, as have the Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense, a member of the Supreme Court, and many of the Senators. Along with some of these, many other high government officials will address and answer questions from the delegates.

The scholarship grant of $102,000 was approved by the Hearst Foundation Trustees because of the outstanding quality of the winners in the first five years of the Senate Youth Program. The grant continues for the fourth consecutive year.

Jeff Kristeller is currently student council president at Durham High School and Mike Shank is a student representative for his county advisory council. Both have participated extensively in community and church work, as well as in school activities.

We sure
look good together

The Patrons Of The Good
Sharon,

It is hard to say anything
because I don't have any class with you. But, you made ballgames fun.

You are the greatest cheerleader
J.K. and I look up to you.
Someday I hope I can cheer
again.

You have a friendly
personality and a pretty face that have won you many friends. Stay sweet.

J.K. is going to miss
people like you in the future,
at other places, need you.

Your friendship has helped many times this year, even if I wasn't talking with you.

Sharon,

You are right. Our senior class has become closer this year. This one factor has made our senior year great.

With your sweet sexy smile,
your outgoing personality and your sexy body, you will go far in life.

Next year we will be ~~separated~~ separated but I'll always remember you and hope that you will remember me. Whenever you are home be sure to come see me.

Good luck in your love life and may God bless.

Love & Peace

Danny

Sr. 7/1

I hope the future brings much happiness to you because you bring happiness to everyone who sees you smile.

God bless,

Sharon, These four years have been the fastest 4 years of my life. People like you have made it short and sweet. We sure have had some great times together. But of course I believe we could have made it better. But just the same we still had fun. This year has been the best of them all I guess. We sure had some "hell" of times is English didn't we. I want never forget (Algebra) in the north grade. Sharon you are one of the best looking girls at J.K. and these are the sweetest personalities anyone could have. I reckon one of the sweetest personalities anyone could have. I reckon that's what makes you so likeable. Keep that smile and good looks and you can go far in life. If you ever need a "silent" date dial these numbers. Best of Luck to the Sweetest girl at J.K.

I really don't know where to start. The past four years have held quite a few experiences. There have been good times and bad along with happy times and sad ones. Quite a few tears too, I'd say -- some I'll never forget as long as I live. You've been quite a friend that I will always admire, an asset to J.K. and just a great person. May God bless you and good luck always.

I could write down all the times we've been through together. But I'm sure someone has already done that. I could never recount all of the hugs + smiles + happy words that we've exchanged in the halls + outside of J.H. - I guess "GOVERNMENT" will be the only real thing that I'll mention - You've made that class so great. Sitting with you has been the high point of many of my days. Sharon, you are

Acknowledgments

I would like to thank the many people who were involved in the production of this yearbook and acknowledge the many credits of it. First, our photographers, Mr. Larry Blount, Miss Susan Craft, Mr. James Darwin, Delmar Studios, Miss Shirley Edwards, Mr. George Mainor, Mr. James Rouse, and Miss Gail Scott.

Special thanks go to our TPC representative, Mr. Darwin, for the assistance and advice that he gave, and our faculty advisor, Mrs. Bettie Lanier, who is the unsung heroine of the 1971 WAKEMA.

Thanks go out to Mr. Taylor and the entire faculty for their patience when the staff had to meet a deadline.

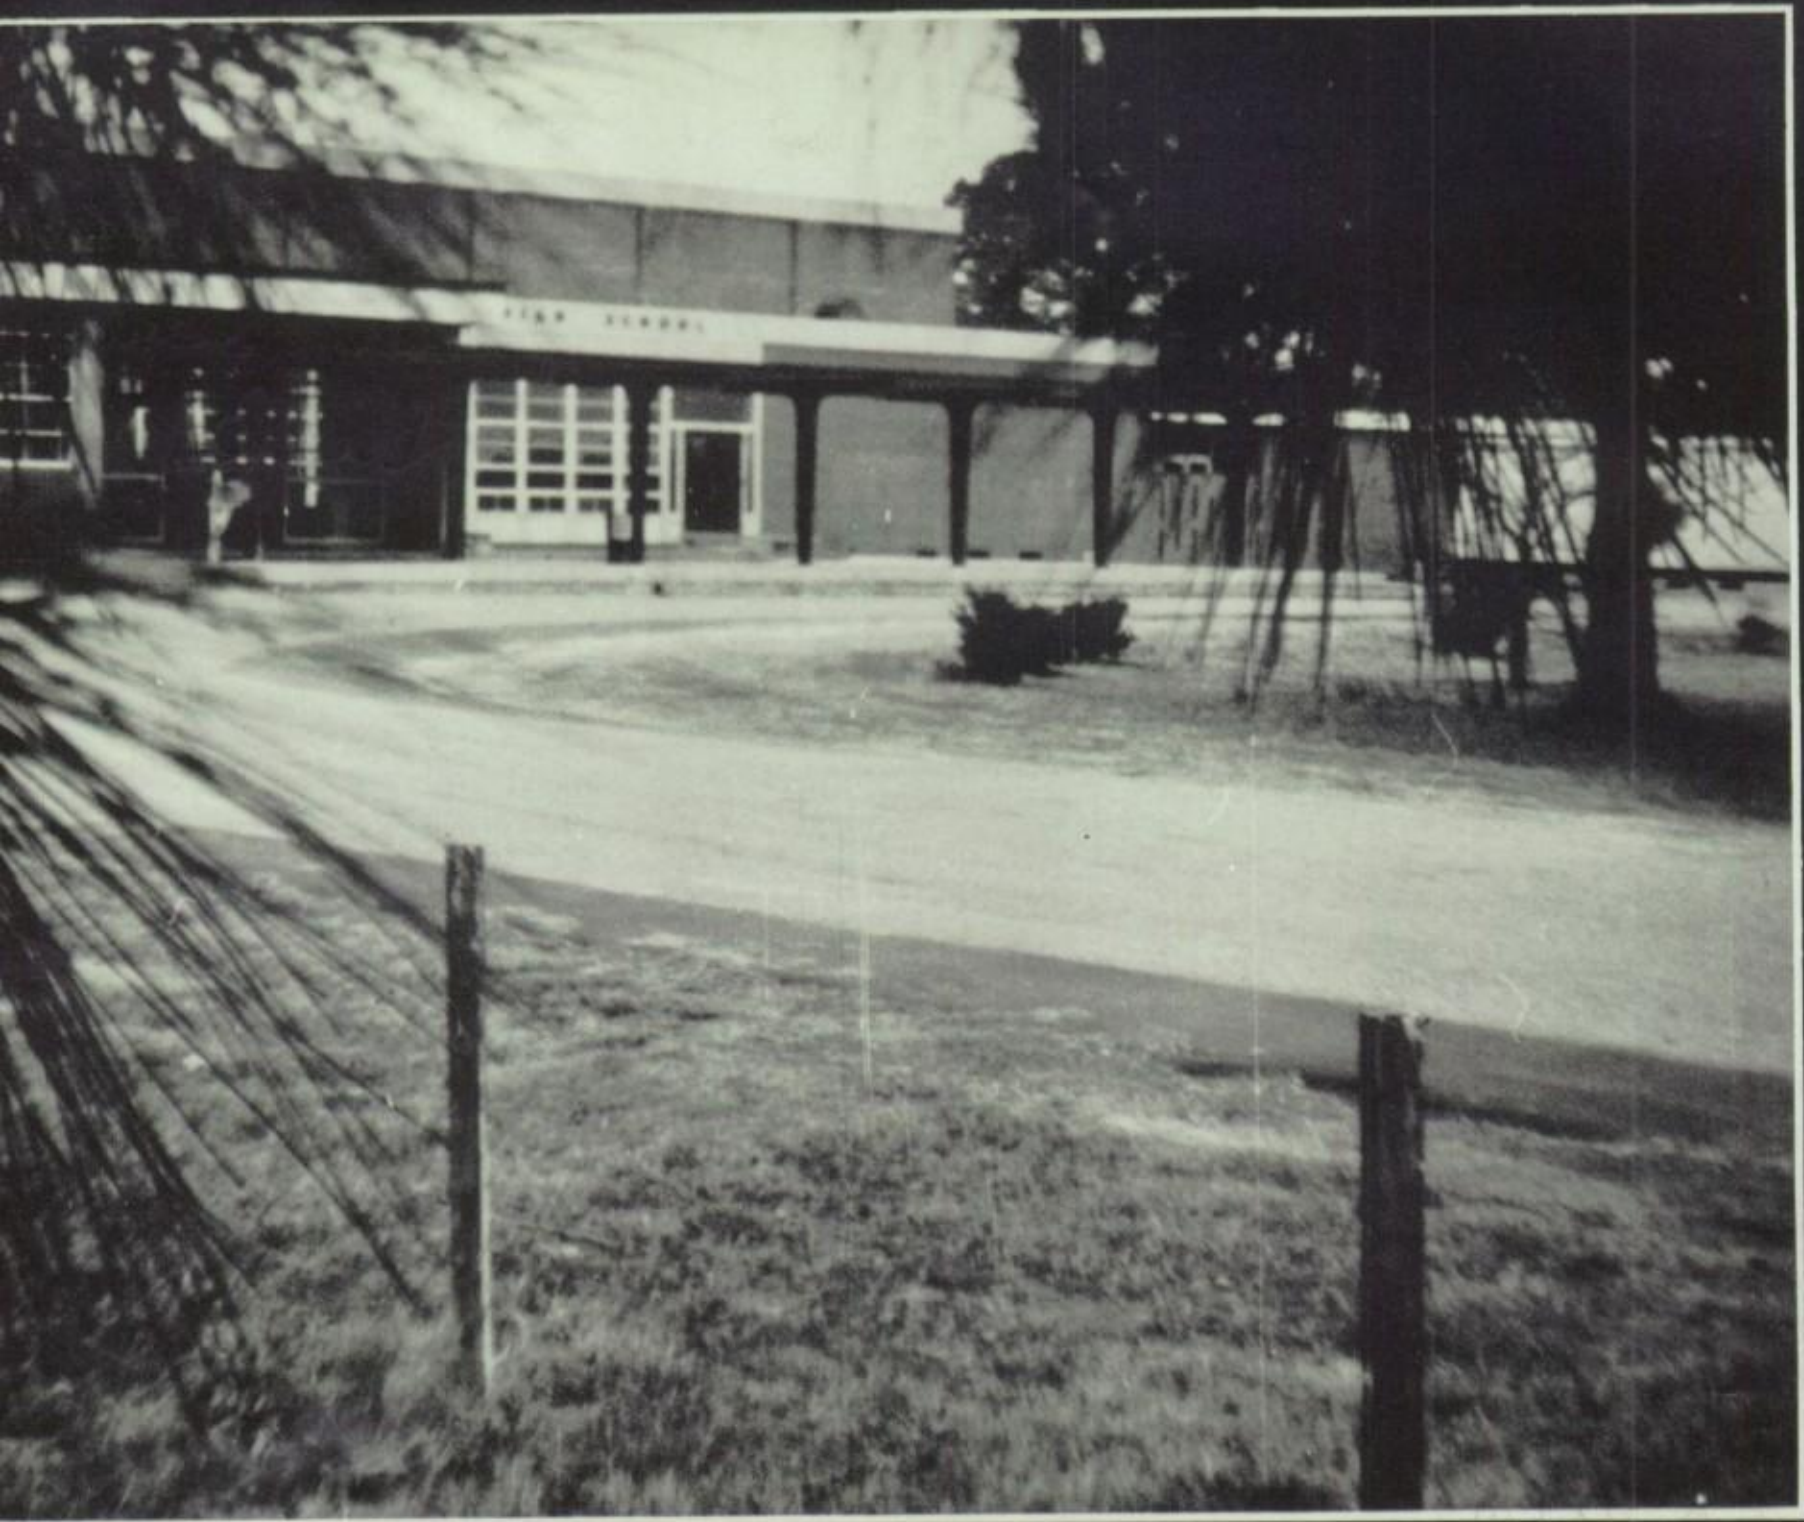

The WAKEMA staff is grateful to Mr. Joe West for the use of the Country Squire restaurant for pictures.

The staff expresses its appreciation to the financial sponsors of the yearbook: Our advertisers, organizations, and the people who bought yearbooks.

And I would like to express my sincere thanks to the entire WAKEMA staff for their immeasurable help in producing volume ten of WAKEMA.

Well, we've finally done it. Our last year
 at J.K. It's been great going to school with
 you. This Space Dedicated to the Class Of 1971.

Sharon,

April 27, 1977

We will have no more ball games,
no more bookkeeping, no more cheering,
and no more J.K. I suppose you are just as happy as I am. Remember when we used to "cut down" those certain people (we still do!), and when we cheated in Bookkeeping, and all those damn football games in the rain? Now, all of that is in the past, along with the times we have been together and the times
we have disagreed.

Thanks for being an understanding friend...

SHARON,

We have almost made it through another year, the best year of our high school years. We have had some good times in office practice. We have been friends for many years and hope to continue being friends
for many more.

Sharon,
It has been nice going to school with you
these years, and I wish you the best luck
in your future life.
a friend always,

Sharon,

Sharon,
Well this year you and I both broke up with someone for whom we cared deeply. You and I sat around so many times and talked,
so many times I would ask about Gloria, so many times you would say, "am I doing the right thing. Well I don't know yet if we were doing the right thing or not, but we did it and now both of us are happy. It was really great being able to sit around and talk to you, and this was just one year out of the 12 you and I have gone to school together. I always thought <sup>that</sup> you were one of the greatest cheerleaders and I was so disappointed when you weren't picked as one of the chiefs. I dated your best friend Tonya, and well how many times were these questions asked and questions answered about that. You know like no one else does how I feel about that.
Well now you will go up to Louisville

no one else does how I feel about that.
Next year you will go up to Louisville and I will be down at U.W.C.-W but you had better come see me you & my 3 cousins & I or I will come looking you. Watch that weight, (He) and watch those wolves at school.
